

Support Literacy Volunteers Fox Valley

Join us on Saturday, March 20 when three-person teams test their knowledge of the unique, the fascinating and sometimes quirky facts of life. You can register your team by contacting Peg Coker at 630-584-4428, peg@lvfv.org or by mailing this form to us....but team competition is not the only way you can help us meet our fundraising goal:

Be the icing on the cake. Be an event sponsor.

Your $1,000 sponsorship can consist of team fees and/or monetary donations. In return, your name will be prominently displayed at the Trivia Bee and on our web site. If you send teams, they will receive prime seating.

Send a team to the Bee

For a $400 donation, your team can compete for the title of Big Bazooka. If you win, you can claim prizes, awards and, best of all, bragging rights.

Sponsor a team

We have teams ready to compete for you...and they are smarties. Simply send your $400 donation to us and we will choose three people to represent you.

Send a contribution

Not the competitive type? A contribution of any amount is greatly appreciated. Make out your check to Literacy Volunteers Fox Valley and mail it to the address below or visit <http://www.lfvf.org/makeadonationgive> to make an online donation through PayPal.
